

Sharon Kay Babst

July 13, 1964 - November 8, 2016

Sharon Babst, 52, a long-time resident of East Wenatchee, WA, and loving wife and mother, passed away on Tuesday, November 8, 2016, at home. She was born on July 13, 1964, at Saint Anthony's Hospital in Wenatchee, WA, to Dale G. and Judy G. Collier. She was raised in East Wenatchee, WA, where she received her education at Eastmont High School and worked as a bookkeeper for her father's automotive shop. Sharon married Bradley Babst, the love of her life, on June 14, 1986, in East Wenatchee. They then bought and moved into their first and final home on March 1, 1989, on the first birthday of their son. She was considered the momma-bear that would protect and sacrifice for her children at any cost. She dedicated her life to her husband, parents, children, and grandchildren, so they could experience the best quality of life possible. Sharon worked diligently to ensure that her family was always taken care of. Regardless of the circumstances, she would always go the extra mile to ensure that everyone's life was filled with joy. Survivors include her husband, Bradley Babst; parents, Dale G. and Judy G. Collier of East Wenatchee; daughter, Danielle (Babst) Schall and son-in-law, Ryan Schall both of East Wenatchee; son, Nicholas Babst of East Wenatchee; and two beautiful grandchildren: Tessa and Kloey Schall. A Private Service will be held at a later date. Arrangements are assisted by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA.
