

Sharon G Hughes

July 3, 2011

Sharon Hughes, 69, of Manson, died Sunday, July 3, 2011.

She had lived in Manson for two years and was a former resident of Malaga. She was a longtime airline passenger service agent and had worked for numerous airlines on the west coast.

Survivors include her husband, Bill Hughes of Manson; and her children, Todd Jarvis, Troy Jarvis and Virgil Hughes, all of Anchorage, Alaska, Rick Hughes of Portland, Ore., and Lori Voie of East Wenatchee.

A memorial service will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at the Friends Church, 2848 Entiat River Road in Entiat.

Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.

Tribute Wall

DR

“ Our family was so sorry to hear of Mrs. Hughes passing. My granddaughter Chantel sat with her on the bus for the rafting trip. Chantel was so touched by her and she shared with Chantel that she was so happy to be with all of her family for this trip, and that the family was here from Alaska. She spoke about wanting to ride a horse on vacation. She was very kind to Chantel and I know that Chantel will always remember her short time with her on the bus. It isn't just anyone that you sit next to on a bus, a stranger that reached out and held a conversation. And someone that left an impression. We are a blended family and so Chantel would really feel the loss of a grandparent. We just wanted to offer our condolences to the family and how Mrs. Hughes befriended Chantel that day. You are all in our prayers, The Robinson Family

Debbie Robinson - July 09, 2011 at 01:29 AM