

Sherilyn Rae McGuire

January 8, 1957 - February 25, 2011

Sherilyn Rae McGuire, 54, of Wenatchee, WA, passed away Friday, February 25, 2011, at her home. She was born on January 8, 1957, at Lake Chelan Hospital to Ira and Lola McGuire. She was the youngest of five children. Sherilyn was raised in the Wenatchee Valley and graduated from Wenatchee High School, class of 1975. After graduating, she ventured out on her own to Central Washington University and, upon leaving CWU, she began her career as a caregiver. Sherilyn worked as a C.N.A. for over 25 years in various adult family homes throughout the valley. In April 1985, Sherilyn gave birth to her only child, Alecia Nicole McGuire. She was a wonderful, patient and understanding mother. She was also blessed in 2004 with a grandson, Maddox Guy, and again in 2007, with a granddaughter, Killian Rae. Sherilyn retired from TCU at Central Washington Hospital due to health complications. She then moved into a private home as an in-home caregiver, where she lived until her death. Sherilyn was a caretaker with a big heart, who loved helping and caring for people. Sherilyn had an incredible sense of humor and a contagious smile. She was a strong, hard working woman, whose kind heart will greatly be missed by many.

Sherilyn is survived by her daughter, Alecia McGuire; granddaughter, Killian Rae McGuire; and her sister, Novella Bratton. Sherilyn Rae was preceded in death by her parents, Ira and Lola McGuire; her brothers, Russ, Ron and Don McGuire; and her grandson, Maddox Guy Rushing.

A Memorial Service, in Celebration of Sherilyn's Life, will be held Saturday, March 5, 2011, beginning at 1:00 p.m. at King's Orchard Church, 1610 Orchard Street, Wenatchee. Arrangements by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
