Shirley Ann Davis

East Wenatchee, WA

Shirley Ann Davis, 73, passed away May 6, 2011, at home in East Wenatchee, WA. She was born in Stockton, CA to Albert and Velma Memory on April 6, 1938. Shirley moved with her family to the Seattle, WA area, where she attended school and especially enjoyed being a member of the high school ski club. After finishing school, she worked at her grandparents' cafe, "The Chicken Roost," in Lynnwood, WA. At the age 20, she moved to Wenatchee, where she was a cook at her parents' restaurant, "Memory's," for a number of years. In Wenatchee, Shirley met and married Richard Davis, who was to be her lifelong companion. They subsequently made their home in East Wenatchee, where they raised their three children, Florene, Marlene and Albert. Shirley was an avid sports fan and enjoyed being involved in a sports pool or two over the years. She was a fun spirited and loving mom, who cherished her children and the many people through the years, whom she welcomed in as part of her family. She was her happiest at gatherings, whether it was at home, out camping, or at Lake Chelan, wherever she could have everyone together at the same time. Her grandchildren and great-grandson were the apples of her eye, and they could talk her into anything. Family and friends alike will miss her greatly.

Shirley is survived by her husband, Richard Davis; children, Florene (Allen) Avra, Marlene (Pat) Moore and Albert Davis; grandchildren, Casey, Erica and Michael Moore; and great-grandson, Ayden Moore, all of East Wenatchee; and sister, Ethel (Bill) Dougherty from Chugiak, AK.

Graveside Services will be held Thursday, May 26, 2011, at 10:00 a.m. at Evergreen Memorial Park in East Wenatchee. A Reception will follow. Arrangements assisted by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
