Tammy Lue Lund
East Wenatchee, WA

Tammy Lue Lund was born on November 22, 1961, in Everett, WA, to Judy and Dale Holzerland. On Tuesday, October 30, 2018, she passed away in the comfort of her own home, surrounded by her friends, family, and loved ones.

Tammy spent a lot of time as a child camping, playing softball, and being head of her pep club pumping up the Eastmont High School spirit. She was a hard worker, spending many years working for our valley Ernst store, taking her adventure to Bi-Mart in East Wenatchee, where she put her hard work in for 18-plus years, as an area coordinator among many other job duties. Tammy enjoyed watching her Denver Broncos during football season, college softball, but enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and family the most.

Tammy is survived by her husband, Dewain Lund; son, Jake Lund, and his girlfriend, Kara Shook, and their children, Ali and Madi; daughter, Bridget Lund, and her fiancé, Nick Johnson, and her children, Rivers and Bella Lasher; mother and father, Judy and Dale Holzerland; brothers: Duane Holzerland and Ted Holzerland; as well as several cousins, uncles, aunts, nephews, and nieces.

Tammy's friends and family loved her so much and that love will continue.
