

Terry Chambers

July 23, 1946 - August 26, 2021

Terry Leon Chambers, 75, died August 26, 2021 in Wenatchee, WA with his youngest son, Drew, by his side. Terry was born July 23, 1946 in Arlington, Virginia, the son of late Myrna and Ralph Chambers. He was the younger brother to late Larry (Bud) Chambers.

Terry graduated high school in 1964 from the Paris American High School in France. Terry enlisted with the United States Army in 1966 and was Honorably Discharged later that year. In 1970 Terry married (now divorced) Paula Jeanne Dent, whom he met in France, and they had two sons Sean and Drew. Terry worked for Whitestone Farm in Aldie, Virginia until he made the long journey to Alaska in 1980. In Alaska he became a "Jack of all Trades" working for fishing boats, oil fields, car dealerships, and guide services, to name a few; and met his late partner Betty Kelley. In 2017 Terry moved to Fayetteville, Arkansas to be closer to family and later moved to Missoula, Montana (2020) and then Wenatchee, Washington in May 2021.

Terry is survived by his son Sean Chambers of Carbondale, Illinois; son and daughter-in-law Drew and Emma Chambers of Wenatchee, Washington; three grandchildren: Brittany, Courtney, and Shane; five great-grand children.

Terry did not wish for a memorial service; however, his ashes will be spread along the Blackfoot River in Montana and a marker will be located at Fort

Richardson in Alaska. In lieu of any flowers the family asks that a contribution to the Alzheimer's Association or Wounded Warrior Project be made in Terry's name.
