“ When i was a kid Ted and his family would sit in front of us at Church. He would fall asleep and snore and I would be so envious because I also wanted to sleep but my Dad would have kicked my butt if I did. I remember he would always dress well. Once I went to his huge house in Waterville. There were colonnades in the front. He had three wheelers, snowmobiles and all kinds of awesome toys! Ted used to have his kids sing in Church and i boy was i thankful that wasnt me!

The strongest memory i had was the passing of his son. It seems an impossibility and as a father myself I cannot imagine the grief Ted and his family endured. May God be with, and bless Ted's family.
