

Vera E. Schons

October 19, 1917 - September 4, 2018

Vera E Schons, 100, passed away peacefully at her home on Tuesday, Sept. 04, 2018. She was born on Oct. 19, 1917 in Texas, but lived most of her life in Oklahoma. She graduated from Drumwright High School in 1936. In the 1940's she moved to Wenatchee with her two children Marilyn and Larry to live with her sister Dora Peart and her brother in law Ray. She worked at various jobs, including J.C. Penney's and Sears. She met John M Schons through his sister Marie Halbert of Cashmere. They were married in 1950 and she and her two children moved to the ranch on Eagle Creek Road in Leavenworth. There she had three children John K, Helen and Tom. She raised the children and helped on the ranch until the late 60's when she started working in orchards picking fruit. She later worked for Bluebird Fruit where she packed fruit, until retiring in 1979. Her greatest joy came from taking care of her family, working in the flower garden and gambling in Reno and later Mill Bay.

She was preceded in death by her husband, John M.; her children, Marilyn, Larry, Helen and Tom, as well as all her sisters and brothers. She is survived by her son John K, son in law, Taylor H Mayfield of Leavenworth and daughter in law Judi Schons of Eugene, Or., numerous nieces and nephews in Washington and Oklahoma, and many many grandchildren who's birthday's she always remembered. All of us will miss her smile and laugh.

Friends and family are invited to a Celebration of Life at the Leavenworth Fire Hall on Saturday, Oct. 20, 2018 from 1pm to 3pm. Arrangements assisted by Chapel of the Valley, Wenatchee.
