“ Todd, thinking of you today. It is a cold rainy day and we have been reflecting on the years that we had you in our lives..we miss the Apple Sox games and our walks along the river. Hope you are rejoicing in Heaven and enjoying your reunions with loved ones there. We miss you like crazy and know that we will see you again. Sending you lots of loves and big big hugs....Rena and Don Lau

“ Todd, my sweet, precious father-in law it's been one year and one day since I sat by your side with Lou as you left us to go be with The Lord. I miss You so much. So does Travis and all of your Grandkids. Our last phone conversation meant so much to me and it will always be cherished in my memories, in my heart. You were too young to be taken and I do feel a great deal of sadness still as well as a little anger. Only because it hurts to miss you so much. I still know your voice so well, your stories, your facial expressions. Gosh, it's just crazy to me. I know I probably drove you crazy everyday I sat by your bedside until you left us crying like a big baby. It was just too painful to bare and still I have those moments where I break down. You know you were a good guy if you've touched people like myself so deep inside that they still feel a tremendous amount of pain for your loss. You are so loved and missed everyday. May you be flying free with the angels of heaven and your loved ones you lost. We all love you my sweet father in law. Till we meet again you will remain forever in my heart. I love you, Todd

“ To all the Loeffler family,
Sorry for your loss.
Todd will always remain in my heart as an old friend and co-worker.
Hope healing has started to replace the sorrow.
