“ I met Wayne while working at Target. He was the sweetest person you could ever met. He will be missed by so many. RIP Wayne.

“ I met Wayne 30 years ago when we lived in the same apartment complex. He was always so kind. Through the years, when I'd see him at Target, he'd always ask how my daughter was doing. She was just a baby when we lived there, but he never forgot her.

The world has lost a huge heart.
