Wilburn "Reed" Port

Wenatchee, WA

Wilburn "Reed" Port, born on November 28, 1948, in Oakley, ID, passed away on September 6, 2015, in Wenatchee, WA, after a short and tragic battle with cancer. He moved to the Wenatchee Valley with his parents, Bill and Doris Port, at the age of six, where he lived and worked the rest of his life.

Reed enjoyed camping, hunting, fishing, reading western novels and local history, as well as spending time with friends and family. He graduated from Eastmont High School in 1967, was drafted into the Marines in 1969, and then married Connie Baldrige shortly after being discharged in 1971.

Reed was preceded in death by his parents, and infant brother, Dennis Port. He is survived by his wife, Connie; sons, Joe (Chrissy) Port and Mike (Deana) Port; siblings, Linda (Gary Fields) Port, Karen (Larry) Pearson and Chad(Lisa) Port; grandchildren, Jessica Port, Brandon Port, Chase Setzer; and great-granddaughter, Makenna Setzer; as well as numerous nieces and nephews; and longtime dear friends, Vic and Cathy Mott, and Marine buddy, Roger Garrett.

A Celebration of Reeds' life will be held Saturday, September 19, 2015, 2 p.m. at Saddlerock Presbyterian Church, 1400 S. Miller, Wenatchee, WA. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Relay for Life. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee
