

William Dagley II

April 23, 1959 - October 6, 2023

William Thomas Dagley II (Tom) 64 years old, of Baywood Park, California, died in Wenatchee Washington of complications of C.O.P.D. on October 6, 2023.

He was born in Bakersfield, California in 1964 to Marilyn Jean Brown and William Tomas Dagley. He spoke often and fondly of his childhood growing up in the small town of Morro Bay. Tom attended Sunnyside elementary in Los Osos and Morro Bay High in Morro Bay. After high school he joined the United States Navy in San Luis Obispo, California.

Tom was preceded in death by his mother, Marilyn Brown, and father William Dagley. He is survived by daughters, Lindsey Morrow, Chelsa and Kimberly Dagley, and 3 granddaughters, Lillian, Piper and Genivieve, as well as his three sisters, Katherine, Mary and Lois and many nieces and nephews.

Everyone that knew Tom knew that his girls always came before himself, and he would do anything to ensure they had what they needed to thrive. That kindness didn't end with his children, however, as he would give a total stranger the shirt from his own back if he saw they were in need. He never knew a stranger though, as most that he met became a good friend for life. He loved his family, and he will be forever missed by friends and family alike.

Thanks for leaving me out of the family photo. That was so nice of you. Almost like I don't even exist. Like wtf

He had three daughters, not just two.
